Squash Cakes.

One pint of smooth squash, about the thickness of apple sauce, two ounces of butter, teaspoonful of baking powder, one-half teaspoonful of seasoning and in sea, sky and navy blue, reds flour enough to roll. Cut with a biscuit cutter and fry like potato cakes. These made in the same way, with green or dried fruit, are prime. Fritters are cooper chips by comparison.

Wives to Be Pitied. To the Editor:

Many women are to be pitted if they have married men of "Cinders's" stamp. Any man was will practise deception to the extent that he did and thereafter lie in bed while the woman whom be has promised to honor and cherish is tramping around on the cold olicioth, running the risk of eatching pneumonia and doing a man's work ought to be deprived of her society for the remainder of his life. To the Editor:

What Charles Masterson says in regard to women returning to the "home circle" shows that he does not know what he is talking about. No woman who can afford to stay at home will leave the home circle for the purpose of making a flying.

There are thousands and thousands of refined women who are compelled to leave the home circle.
